NOTES

Introduction

This declaration must be completed and returned to the Greffier of the States within 30 days of your election or re-election. The requirement to register applies to all interests, whether received, arising, held or owned within or outside Jersey. Please note that there is no requirement to register the monetary value of any interest that must be registered but you may do so if you wish.

If the requirement to register any interest on this form depends on its having a monetary value in excess of a specified amount (e.g. shareholdings) and you are unsure of the exact value of the interest, but believe it to be in the region of the specified amount, you must register it.

Certain sections require you to register interests of your 'spouse or cohabitee'. For these purposes you are not required to declare any interests of a former spouse or a spouse who is living separately and apart from you. Standing Orders define 'cohabitee' as a person of either sex living with an elected member in a relationship similar to that of husband and wife. You are not required to register any interest of your spouse or cohabitee which you are not aware of.
