``How very kind of you to bring that charming jug for us to commemorate our Heritage Year and as a souvenir of your visit. It is an excellent example of the silversmith's craft and I am sure that it will be much admired.

The Falklands have received so much kindness from the people of Jersey, particularly in the difficult days immediately after the conflict, that I am almost embarrassed by a further gift. I do hope you will pass on our warm appreciation to the Bailiff and people of Jersey, and our pleasure that you and your wife were able to come down south to visit us for the 400th anniversary of our sighting.

With very best wishes for a safe return.

With very best wishes, Yours ever,
