

Road Traffic (Amendment No. 4) (Jersey) Law 2007 L. 16/2007

This Law was registered in the Royal Court on 18th May 2007 and comes into force on 25th May 2007. The Law amends the Law so that a fine for a speeding offence imposed at a parish hall inquiry shall be applied for the benefit of the Parish in which the offence occurred and may be applied towards the general expenses of the Parish.