Report

The Employment and Social Security Committee believes that Family Allowance is an extremely important benefit, being the allowance specifically targeted to low income families as a contribution to the general cost of bringing up dependent children. It is aimed at those families below the tax threshold and is assessed on the returns made to the Income Tax Department. The benefit is not, therefore, designed or structured to meet immediate need as it is based on this historic income. However, Family Allowance is a vital component in a series of means-tested benefits available to low income families in Jersey, and as such it continues to feature in the Committee's research into low income support in Jersey. The Committee are formulating proposals for a general income support benefit which ultimately would subsume Family Allowance.

In the meantime the Committee needs to maintain the existing Family Allowance Scheme and, under Article 12 of the Family Allowance (Jersey) Law 1972, the rates of the allowance are required to be reviewed in relation to the cost of living and general standard of living of the community. The Committee are proposing an increase of 3.9 per cent on existing maximum rates, which is also in line with recent increases in the Parish Welfare Rates.

The table below gives examples of current weekly rates and proposed weekly rates for a two-child family -

Annual Income	Current Rate	Proposed Rates
6,600	90.43	93.96
8,600	74.56	77.47
10,600	55.32	57.48
12,600	36.08	37.48
14,600	16.84	17.49

The Committee estimates that the cost of the Family Allowance Scheme, including these proposals, will be met within the Committee's cash limit set for the year 2002.

There are no manpower implications for the States arising from these draft Regulations.

Note: The Finance and Economics Committee supports the draft Regulations, subject to the increases being met from within the Employment and Social Security Committee's existing cash limit.

Explanatory Note

These Regulations specify the rates and amounts for the purposes of calculating the annual rate of family allowance during the family allowance year beginning on Tuesday, 1st January 2002.
