European Convention on Human Rights

The President of the Legislation Committee has made the following statement -

In the view of the Legislation Committee the provisions of the Draft Dogs (Amendment No. 2) (Jersey) Law 200 are compatible with the Convention Rights.

(Signed) Senator W. Kinnard

REPORT

This draft Law has been prepared in response to representations received by the Legislation Committee to the effect that 'hearing dogs for the deaf' should be exempt from the necessity for a dog licence under the Dogs (Jersey) Law 1961 in the same way as guide dogs for the blind.

The amending Law will also enable future exemptions from this requirement to be contained in regulations.

Under article 3 of the principal Law, as presently drafted, certain dog owners are exempt from the requirement to pay duty on a licence, but technically the requirement to obtain a licence remains. The amending law removes this anomaly.

The draft Law has no implications for the financial or manpower resources of the States.

European Convention on Human Rights

Article 16 of the Human Rights (Jersey) Law 2000 will, when brought into force by Act of the States, require the Committee in charge of a Projet de Loi to make a statement about the compatibility of the provisions of the Projet with the Convention rights (as defined by Article 1 of the Law). Although the Human Rights (Jersey) Law 2000 is not yet in force, on 4th October 2002 the Legislation Committee made the following statement before Second Reading of this projet in the States Assembly -

In the view of the Legislation Committee the provisions of the Draft Dogs (Amendment No. 2) (Jersey) Law 200 are compatible with the Convention Rights.

Explanatory Note

This Law would remove the requirement for a dog licence to be held for a 'hearing dog for the deaf', and enable future exemptions from the licensing requirement to be specified by Regulations.
