Report

On 17th December 1999, the Agriculture and Fisheries Committee made an Act delegating certain of its functions under legislation referred to in the Committee Paper.

The terms of the delegation were recorded in an Act of the Committee as follows -

“A3. The Committee, with reference to Act No. 21 of 8th January 1997, of the Committee as previously constituted, and in pursuance of Article 36A of the States of Jersey Law 1966, as amended, received and noted the contents of a formal statement (designated Committee Paper AF/1/00) which detailed certain powers delegated to the Chief Officer by the Committee as previously constituted.

The Committee accordingly approved the contents of the aforementioned statement subject to minor amendments and requested that a copy of this Act and the attached statement be displayed in the Department’s offices for perusal by the public.

The Greffier of the States was requested to present the details of the approved delegated powers to the States for information.”.

COMMITTEE PAPER

1. Control and sales of leases of land

- Legislation: Article 2 and 3 of the Agricultural Land (Control of Sales and Leases) (Jersey) Law 1974, as amended.
- Delegate: The Chief Officer of the Agriculture and Fisheries Department or, in his absence, the Deputy Chief Officer.
- Functions delegated: The power to grant consent for the sale or lease of land where the consent -
- (i) in the case of land in respect of which a consent had previously been granted, did not result in the loss of any of the agricultural land specified in the application;
  - (ii) ensured agricultural land on which a consent had not previously been granted and for which consent was now required was reserved solely for the use of bona fide agriculturalists;
  - (iii) renewed a consent previously granted in respect of land defined as 'gardens' or 'amenity land';
  - (iv) recognised as 'gardens' or 'amenity land' land which had not previously been the subject of an application under the Law;
  - (v) renewed a consent previously granted for land of non-agricultural importance but where the environmental impact of any changes needed the approval of the Planning and Environment Committee;

(vi) recognised an area of land of non-agricultural importance but where the environmental impact of any changes needed the approval of the Planning and Environment Committee which had not previously been the subject of an application under the Law.

Scope of delegation: Grant of consents and imposition of conditions.
