15th January 2021

Dear Minister

COVID-19 Jersey Vaccine Programme

Thank you for your response dated 18th December 2020, to the Panel's letter regarding the delivery of the COVID-19 vaccine in Jersey.

The Panel would be grateful if you could provide answers/further details on the following matters:

1. Please can you provide the Panel with a copy of the UK-Jersey COVID-19 vaccine distribution agreement?
2. Please can you advise how the UK-Jersey COVID-19 vaccine distribution agreement works in practise to ensure enough Jersey residents are vaccinated?
3. Please can you advise how provision of funding for the COVID-19 Vaccine Programme has been made?
4. Please can you advise where the data showing the number of persons who have been vaccinated against COVID-19 is published.
5. Please can you confirm whether any individuals have received the COVID-19 vaccine, who do not fall within the purview of the current COVID-19 Vaccination Programme? (i.e. persons 80 and older, care home residents or carers, or frontline health and social workers).
  - a) If so, please can you explain the reasons for this.

The Panel would be grateful if you could provide a response by Thursday 21st January.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Deputy Mary Le Hegarat
Chair
Health and Social Security Scrutiny Panel
