

Scrutiny Liaison Committee

Weekly Bulletin of Panel/Committee Activity

Week ending Friday 29th May 2020

Scrutiny Liaison Committee

The Committee was unable to meet daily due to the bank holiday, States meeting and the volume of other Panel commitments, but it continued when possible to exchange views and experiences on current and forward work planning, States business and general information/issues/questions to be addressed by the relevant Panel/Committee. The possibility of arranging increased opportunity for cross-Panel (and where possible all-Scrutiny Member) discussions/briefings on any future emergency legislation covering multiple remits is being actively explored.

Economic and International Affairs Panel - Activity Update

The Panel is mainly focussing on the work of the Minister for Economic Development and the support offered to the business community. The Panel is also focussed on the economic impacts of the outbreak.

- The Panel is due to hold a Quarterly Hearing with the EDD Minister on Friday 5 June to primarily discuss the department's 'business as usual' areas, but questions on Covid-19 are also, likely to be asked.
- The Panel has been discussing ways in which it can support businesses that have been impacted by Covid-19. The Panel has drafted a survey to gather information from the business community in relation to business owners' and self-employed people's views on the payroll scheme and its application process. The Panel notes that two other surveys have been recently undertaken by organisations on the same subject. In that regard, the Panel has decided to delay issuing its survey but will revisit it in due course when it may decide to include additional questions on other areas related to Covid-19.
- The Panel has been discussing the Government Plan in light of the Covid-19 Crisis. With the Government Plan due to be lodged in October, the Panel has decided to evaluate its proposals and consider the Government Plan's workstreams in view of the changing circumstances. The Panel is conscious of the fact that the Government Plan is likely to be reconsidered in part and areas addressed where expenditure can be reduced, and savings can be made.

By reviewing the Government Plan, the Panel will find clarity on what was previously proposed, what projects could change, and areas of importance that should not change, in its view, will be highlighted. In doing so, the Panel will be prepared and will have considered its views in advance of when the Government Plan is addressed later in the year.

- As part of this process, the Panel may hold meetings with the relevant Ministers to determine if and where cuts are being considered, additionally to express any concerns in advance of changes being made.
- The Panel met with members of the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday 26 May for a weekly catch up meeting.
- The Panel has weekly catch-up meetings with the Minister for Economic Development (normally on a Thursday morning). The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday 28 May.
- The Panel is likely to hold further meetings/Hearings in due course. Witnesses identified include the Chamber of Commerce, Jersey Business and Jersey Hospitality Association. Dates to be confirmed.

Education and Home Affairs Panel

Briefings/Meetings arranged/work undertaken

- The Panel is due to begin consultation with the States of Jersey Police and Chefs de Police in relation to the proposed Draft Covid-19 (Fixed Penalty Notices) (Jersey) Regulations 202-. The Panel has communicated its Terms of Reference to the Minister for Home Affairs and is planning to consult with additional stakeholders (including the Children’s Commissioner) if the legislation is formally lodged. At present there is no certainty as to when the legislation will be lodged as it has yet to be approved by CoM.
- The Panel has continued its weekly catch up meetings with the Ministers in its remit (Education, Home Affairs and the Children’s aspect of the Minister for Children and Housing). The Panel has updated its log of issues either raised by members of the public or stakeholders which it is using as the basis for discussion at these weekly meetings.
- The Panel has received briefings on the following matters during the past week:
 - i. Development of a new Multi-Agency Safeguarding Support Team
 - ii. Results of the joint survey between CYPES and the Children’s Commissioner
 - iii. Plans for a safe phased return for schools
 - iv. Changes to Marriage and Civil Partnership Ceremonies to ensure safety during the Covid-19 outbreak. This is due to be lodged for debate on 16th June.
- The Panel has held the current hearings with Ministers as of 28th May 2020:
 - a) Minister for Education – Friday 15th May
 - b) Minister for Children and Housing – Friday 22nd May
 - c) Minister for Home Affairs – Tuesday 26th May
- The Panel has written to all teaching and emergency services unions in order to gather their views on the response to Covid-19. Thus far, it has received responses from the NEU, NASUWT and Fire and Rescue Service Association which it is following up with the respective Ministers where appropriate.

Future briefings/legislative changes to consider

The Panel is due to examine the following legislative changes:

- Legislation is being considered around preventing 'unlawful gatherings' during Covid-19.
- Legislation is being considered around tackling riots as a result of Covid-19 matters. Again, this is currently in its infancy and would require significant changes to existing legislation.

The Panel will likely arrange briefings for all of these pieces of legislation and consult (where possible) with relevant stakeholders.
