Dear Sam

Thank you for your letter of 5th October 2022.

I welcome your approach of each Panel focusing on the aspects of the Government Plan that are specific to their remit and expertise, with Corporate Services considering overarching themes. We look forward to receiving the tailored terms of reference from each Panel.

With the Government Plan now lodged, I appreciate that it is important to ensure that we provide Panels with all the necessary information so you can conduct effective and rapid reviews without undue delay. I have instructed officials accordingly, and I know that Ministers share my view of the importance of ensuring the rapid provision of information, and of prioritising attendance at public hearings.

This includes providing the information you have requested (supplementary tables, departmental financial tables and summaries of growth business cases which will be contained in the annex which supplements the lodged Government Plan) by Wednesday 13th October 2022. This is the same day they are due to be provided for Ministers. We will also provide an analysis by Minister, as that properly enables the Panels to allocate work according to their remit.

I trust the above is welcome and look forward to further requests and discussion in advance of the debate.

Yours sincerely,
