Dental Health Review

Which hurts more: the drill or the bill?

Should the States be doing more to help Islanders with their dental expenses?

Tell us what you think!

The Health, Social Security and Housing Scrutiny Panel is undertaking a review of Jersey's dental health services and will be looking at issues such as affordability, funding, regulation and access to States-funded services. If you have views on these topics, we would like to hear them.

Please contact us by Friday 28th May 2010 by either:
