

Social Security Overpayments – Submission from Anonymous 1

Id like to say the way they manage and administer the overpayment system is a joke from the first time this year when as I was in the midst of the flooding in [REDACTED] being told I have a 1 thousand pounds over payment to my girlfriend coming off my household ive had over 31 pounds taken off me per week to pay for overpayments in the midst of a inflation crisis I am struggling [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [medical conditions cited] and I am suffering the way income support is managed by the officers and enforcement team are quite barbaric I now often have to choose without borrowing money to go without my medication or eating its is awful
