

The new Hospital is going in the wrong place, we don't a palace we just want a working hospital, other places are building hospital for a lower cost, and France offered to build our hospital for less than the cost which our states are saying.